Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone

Note verbale dated 12 September 2000 from the Permanent Mission of Luxembourg to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

The Permanent Representative of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone and, referring to his note verbale of 10 July 2000, has the honour to inform him of the measures taken by the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg to give effect to the provisions of Security Council resolutions 1306 (2000) and 1171 (1998).

On 3 August 2000, the European Union adopted Regulation No. 1745/2000 prohibiting, in accordance with Security Council resolution 1306 (2000), the import of rough diamonds from Sierra Leone to the countries of the European Community. This regulation is binding on the whole Community and directly applicable to Luxembourg.

With regard to the implementation of Security Council resolution 1171 (1998), after the adoption by the European Council of a common position on 29 June 1998, the necessary steps have been taken at the national level to conform to the provisions of paragraph 2 of that resolution.

Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone

Note verbale dated 18 September 2000 from the Permanent Mission of the Netherlands to the United Nations addressed to the Chairman of the Committee

The Permanent Representative of the Kingdom of the Netherlands to the United Nations presents his compliments to the Chairman of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997), and has the honour to communicate the following information concerning the implementation of the United Nations sanctions against Sierra Leone, as established by the Security Council in its resolutions 1306 (2000) and 1171 (1998).

On 3 August, the Council of the European Union adopted European Union regulation No. 1745/2000, imposing restrictions on the import of rough diamonds from Sierra Leone. In conformity with Security Council resolution 1306 (2000), this regulation prohibits direct or indirect import into the European Union of rough diamonds coming or originating from Sierra Leone, except when the import of rough diamonds is accompanied by a certificate of origin issued by the Sierra Leonese authorities (in accordance with paragraph 5 of resolution 1306 (2000).

At this moment a ministerial order is being prepared by the Government of the Netherlands which penalizes violation of common position No. 1998/409/GBVB, prohibiting the sale and supply of arms to non-governmental forces in Sierra Leone, following Security Council resolution 1171 (1998). Punishment in case of violation has been determined in the National Act on Economic Offences.

Weapons embargoes are generally executed by applying the licence regime laid down in the Import and Export Act, which has been further specified in the Decree on Import and Export of Strategic Goods.
